did knowingly and willfully combine, conspire, confederate, agree and have a tacit understanding with other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to commit violations of the law of the United States of America under Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956, to transport, transmit, or transfer monetary instruments and funds from a place inside the United States to a place outside the United States,

- (1) with the intent to promote the carrying on of specified unlawful activity;
and
- (2) knowing that the monetary instrument or funds involved in the transportation, transmission, or transfer represent the proceeds of some form of unlawful activity and knowing that such transportation, transmission, or transfer is designed in whole in or in part--
 - (i) to conceal or disguise the nature, the location, the source, the ownership, or the control of the proceeds of the specified unlawful activity; and
 - (ii) to avoid a transaction reporting requirement under State and Federal laws.

WAYS, MANNERS AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

The purpose of the conspiracy was to acquire monies derived from the sale of controlled substances and then to transfer and deliver the monies to other co-conspirators so that the monies could be transported to the sources of supply of the controlled substances in Mexico.

1. It was part of the conspiracy that the defendants did, either personally or by the actions of their co-conspirators and subordinates, accept large amounts of currency from drug customers and said currency was counted, processed, and packaged, and then delivered and transferred to other co-conspirators for transportation to the sources of supply in Mexico.
2. It was further part of the conspiracy that the defendants did, either personally or by the actions of their co-conspirators and subordinates, transport the currency in tractor trailer trucks and other vehicles to locations in Texas, where the currency would be stored temporarily until it was transported over the United States border and into Mexico, where it was accepted by the defendants, their co-conspirators, and their subordinates.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1956(h).

FORFEITURE PROVISION
